S102527      The People, Petitioner
1st Dist.      v.
A096959      Marin County Superior Court, Respondent
Div. 4      Patrick Ghilotti, Real Party in Interest
                Petition for review GRANTED.

Respondent superior court is ordered to show cause before this court why the relief sought in the petition should not be granted.

The issues to be briefed and argued are limited to the following:

(1) Does Welfare & Institutions Code section 6601, subdivision (h), allow the State Department of Mental Health to request the filing of a petition for commitment or recommitment under the Sexually Violent Predator Act (id., § 6600 et seq.) without the concurrence of two mental health evaluators that the person “has a diagnosed mental disorder so that he or she is likely to engage in acts of sexual violence without appropriate treatment and custody” (id., § 6601, subd. (d))?

(2) If the answer to question (1) is “no,” and the filing of such a petition is challenged on the ground that it lacks the concurrence of two mental health evaluators that the person meets the criteria set forth in section 6601, subdivision (d), should the trial court independently examine the evaluators’ reports to determine whether the reports reflect application of the correct legal interpretation of the statutory criteria, and, if they do not, should the trial court determine whether the evaluators’ assessments, viewed in light of the correct standard, would support the filing of a petition?

(3) What is the correct legal interpretation of the phrase “likely to engage in acts of sexual violence without appropriate treatment and custody” (italics added) as used in section 6601, subdivision (d)?

In view of the need for expedited review, petitioner’s opening brief on the merits is to be filed on or before January 2, 2002. Respondent’s and/or real party in interest’s opposing brief on the merits is to be filed on or before January 23, 2002. Petitioner’s reply brief is to be filed on or before January 30, 2002. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 45(d).)

The matter is set for argument in Sacramento on February 6, 2002.

Pending resolution of the petition for writ of mandate or further order of this court, whichever occurs sooner, the trial court’s order dismissing the petition for petitioner’s recommitment under the Sexually Violent Predator Act, petitioner’s release from confinement in a secure mental health facility, and all further trial court proceedings in this matter, are hereby stayed. (People v. Superior Court (Johannes) (1999) 70 Cal.App.4th 558, 561-562, fn. 5 [when a trial court dismisses a petition filed under the Sexually Violent Predator Act, “the People . . . may seek writ review and a temporary stay where the dismissal will result in the release of one potentially dangerous to the public, until the propriety of the dismissal order can be reviewed”]; People v. Superior Court (Myers) (1996) 50 Cal.App.4th 826, 833-835 [similar holding with regard to the Mentally Disordered Offender Law (Pen. Code, § 2960 et seq.).])

B151555      Danielle L. Williams, Defendant and Appellant
Div. 5                -----
S101052      In re Danielle L. Williams on Habeas Corpus

Petition for Review GRANTED.

The matter is transferred to the Court of Appeal, Second District, Division Five with directions to vacate its August 29, 2001, opinion to the extent it summarily denied habeas relief in B151555, and to issue an order to show cause, returnable before the Los Angeles County Superior Court. The Director of Corrections is to be ordered to show cause, when the matter is placed on calendar, why trial counsel was not ineffective in failing to investigate and present expert testimony regarding petitioner’s mental state, and why the judgment of conviction should not be vacated and petitioner should not be allowed a new trial. S016730      The People, Respondent v.

Raymond Edward Steele, Appellant

The parties are directed to file supplemental briefing on the following points:

(1) Regarding the facts, the parties should discuss what evidence the record contains as to the nature and extent of any actual combat experience appellant had in Vietnam. (See, e.g., RT 4640-4643, 4654-4655, 4662-4663.)

(2) Regarding issue 3, the claim of jury misconduct, respondent should respond to part III D 3, pages 126-136, of the appellant's opening brief. (See RB 28-29 [correctly noting that appellant has asserted two separate claims of misconduct, and including subpart 1 responding to one of the claims, but omitting any subpart 2 and otherwise failing to respond to the remaining claim].)

(3) Regarding issue 5, a challenge to the pathologist's testimony, the parties should discuss whether the prosecution elicited the challenged testimony on redirect examination in response to appellant's cross-examination, the nature of appellant's objection and the reason the court overruled it, and the legal significance of these circumstances. (See RT 3995, 4044-4045, 4066-4069.)

Because these points involve arguments made in the appellant's opening brief, the court requests respondent to file a supplemental respondent's brief on or before January 14, 2002. Because the respondent's brief went into default before it was filed, the court will not grant an extension of time to file the supplemental respondent's brief. Appellant shall file a supplemental reply brief replying to the supplemental respondent's brief within 30 days of the filing of the supplemental respondent's brief.

S097104 Mary J. Jefferson, Plaintiff and Appellant

4th Dist. v.

E026915 California Department of Youth Authority et al.,

Div. 2 Defendants and Respondents

To assist in the resolution of this case, the court hereby orders the parties to brief the following issues:

If a compromise and release concedes that the injury arises out of and in the course of employment and therefore falls within the compensation bargain, is an order approving the compromise and release res judicata, precluding civil actions asserting that the injury falls outside the compensation bargain? (See, e.g., Lopez v. Sikkema (1991) 229 Cal.App.3d 31; Young v. Libbey-Owens Ford Co. (1985) 168 Cal.App.3d 1037; Busick v. Workmen's Comp. Appeals Bd. (1972) 7 Cal.3d 967.)

Is this res judicata issue properly before this court?

Supplemental letter briefs shall be filed simultaneously by both parties on or before January 11, 2002. Each party may file a response to the other party's brief on or before January 31, 2002.

S101183 The People, Plaintiff and Respondent

2nd Dist. v.

B139901 Tracy L. Batts et al., Defendants and Appellants

Div. 1

The court directs that the parties in the above-captioned matter include in their briefs before this court a discussion of the following issue:

When a trial court denies a defendant's claim of double jeopardy, should the defendant be required to seek timely review of the denial by a petition for extraordinary writ as a condition to raising the double jeopardy claim on appeal? (See 1 Witkin & Epstein, Cal. Criminal Law (3rd. Ed. 2000) Defenses, § 186, p. 544; In re Lozoya (1956) 146 Cal.App. 2d 702, 704.) If the court were to determine that the answer is “yes,” should such a ruling apply retroactively, or should it apply prospectively only?
